Rev S Gorgas M D

Dear Sir

Allow me to express

Through you, the Pres- of the "Harris Club", my high appreciation of the honor they conferred upon me in December last- by electing me to honorary membership in an association, the good results of which have been so apparent- during the final examination of the past week.

I also here take occasion to congratulate the gentlemen composing this club on the success they have achieved in establishing so successful an association in our college: one which should entitle its founders to be remembered with gratitude and respect by all their successors in the sessions which are to follow.

I trust the "Harris Club" may continue as long as our College shall exist; as I regard it as useful adjunct- to the course of lectures and demonstrations

May it- always be conducted in a manner similar to that of the present session; and may each one of its founders live long and prosper abundantly in all that tends to render life pleasant-

Respectfully &c

F J S Gorgas M D

Dean of the Faculty

I think it due to the "club" to state that the gentleman who received the highest number of votes is one of their number, and that no less than four others also of the "Club" are but one vote behind the gentleman just referred to.

On the 14th of October, 1881, a meeting was held by the junior students of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery in the Lecture Room, for the purpose of taking into consideration the reorganization of the quiz club which for ^{years} has been regularly formed since the commencement of the first session. The "Freshmen" having assembled to the number of 17, a motion was made that Mr. Hachter take the chair as President pro tem; it was seconded and carried, and he in turn, taking his place with proper gravity, set forth in a few brief and explicit remarks the nature and purpose of a quiz club. The minds of his fellow students having been enlightened on this score, the spirit moved some one to make a motion that the quiz club of '80-'81 be revived in that of '81-'82, this, on being duly seconded, was carried unanimously. It was then moved that the name of the club be the Harris Quiz Club, carried, but not unanimously. Election of officers next took place; the following were, without a dissenting voice, elected:

President,	Chas. H. Hachter.	Balto. Md.
Vice-President,	Walter D. Moses.	Charleston, S.C.
Secretary,	Wm. M. Hatch.	Balto. Md.
Treasurer.	Barth B. Bracken

That a motion was made that the second meeting be held on Tuesday, Oct. 25, at 7:30 P. M.; carried. After the President had made a few explanatory remarks in regard to the use of the Lecture Room and gave out the program of a ready-formed constitution from the Record Book of the club, a motion was made to adjourn; and when carried, the meeting practically passed quickly out. Good order characterized this preliminary meeting throughout.

The regular meeting of the Harris League Club was held in the College Building this evening, President Wichter in the chair. Coming to the fact that complaint had been made by a society using the room adjoining the Lecture Hall, that our presence so near them interfered with their proceedings, we, in order to meet the request of our esteemed Dean, Prof. Gorgas, assembled, for the first time, in the "Inferno" Room (as indicated above by the high-sounding name of "College Hall") for the purpose of holding our regular quiz. Having comfortably seated ourselves in the chairs which E. Carter had neatly arranged for us in the spacious apartment, the President behind a desk, with the Secretary on his right provided with a similar article, and at his left hand a third desk for the Examiner, the quizzing began, Mr. Bruden being the first called upon. The gentleman not being present, his place was taken by the Secretary, as furnished with list, the subjects were Physiology and Anatomy. Examination on Prof. ^{Gorgas's} Harris's lectures was to be held by Mr. Moss, he being absent and affording no substitute was fined by the President 25 cents, according to Sec. 6, Art. II, By-Laws. Mr. Cates was quizzed on Prof. Harris, setting in the center some interesting questions. He was followed by Mr. Stewart, on Dr. Osier; after whom came the Secretary, reporting appointed on Dr. Haldykin. Mr. Collier, who was to have quizzed on Chemistry, having gone home by permission of the President, being sick, his place was filled by the Sec'y. in accordance with motion moved and carried; and the same gentleman quizzed on Prof. Gorgas, the Club permitting. During the quiz there were present 15 old members, a visiting junior, and one new member, Mr. Dollson, who signed the constitution. The President gave permission to Mr. Haldykin to him, as he was suffering with ear-ache. Quizzes for not meeting were now of practical use follows:

Mr. Ford	on	Prof. Lindsay
" Cline	"	" Gorgas
" Dashiell	"	" Lahner
" Penuel	"	" Harris
" Jarrett	"	" Hodgkin
" Seebold	"	" Under

Some discussion now took place, as to whether men for absent at 8 o'clock could be found if no written excuse were handed in at the meeting. The President said that he would not insist on this requirement for absence. He then proposed to engage the attention of the house further, on motion meeting adjourned.

For the first time since the revival of the Harris Quiz Club by the Juniors of '81-'82 the President's chair stood without its regular occupant, Mr. Meeker, who for seven meetings had filled it, and in whose absence this night Vice President Seibold occupied the position of executive officer. Immediately after Roll-call and reading of minutes motion was made that the election of officers for the ensuing month be proceeded with at once, this having been seconded and carried, balloting was at once begun. The following officers were elected on first ballot: Mr. Seibold, President, Mr. Seibold, Vice President, Mr. H. C. H., Secretary. On first vote, Messrs. Hungerford and Sheart received each three votes, more than either of the other candidates. Mr. Hungerford having requested those voting for him to give their suffrages to some other member, Mr. Pennel was elected to fill the office. For Sergeant-at-Arms Messrs. Pennel, White and Tipton having received an equal number of votes on first ballot, a second ballot was taken, which resulted in the election of Mr. Pennel. In the election of each officer was made known, an announcement was allowed for a motion that the election be made unanimous, and in every case it was seconded and carried. At 8 o'clock the singing of hymns for service was begun. Mr. Seibold, having obtained the permission of the President, left the room for the night. Mr. Hilliard, who had been present, having been called home, went home. And then the regular quiz began, Mr. Hungerford on Prof. Logan, being the first to see him. He was followed successively by Mr. White, on Prof. Hall, Mr. Garrett on Prof. Lind-

In this the regular night for weekly meetings, a good number of members of the Hæmic Society in their appearance, and the club were enabled to hold examinations on the various subjects on which lectures had been given in the previous four weeks.
